

---

"A & P" John Updike

---

Narrator:

Point of View:

Setting:

---

1. Describe the relationship Sammy creates between himself and Queenie.
2. What can we infer about Sammy's character based on the language and expressions he uses?
3. Many people view "A & P" as a coming of age story. Explain what Sammy learns as he is introduced into the adult world.
4. Do you agree with Sammy's decision at the end of the story? Discuss whether you think Sammy is a dynamic or a static character.

---

"The Things They Carried" Tim O'Brien

---

Narrator:

Point of View:

Setting:

---

1. What is significant about the things Lt. Jimmy Cross carries? What pattern, if any, do you notice?
2. Is Cross a dynamic or static character? Defend your answer.